Bruce Williams Homes is proud to be part of Lakewood Ranch's newest neighborhood, Central Park. Opening in July, 2010, Central Park will be a gated, certified green community where family comes first.

An inclusive community of 800 single-family homes showcased in 5 separate neighborhoods surrounding a grand park. Amenities will include picnic areas, covered pavilion, sports fields and playground.

Located off Lakewood Ranch Blvd between Hwy 64 and 70, Central Park will be near top-rated schools, advanced medical facilities, shopping centers, and sports and entertainment venues.

In Central Park, Bruce Williams Homes will be showcasing 2 new models from our new Heritage Collection. This collection of homes was developed to help meet today's demand for lower priced homes in highly amenitized communities and have been designed using stringent value engineering guidelines, to create value for our home buyers by reducing construction costs without compromising our 40-year history of building quality homes.

If you would like to be contacted for Priority Pre-Construction Pricing, please call: 941/812-2148 or 941/748-8834
